
Means and SDs are computed across available repeated runs. n is the number of completed repeats in the harvested CSV.